CASE STATUS ORDER

Josephine Amatucci has filed numerous cases in this Court. At present, three of those cases are open. To avoid confusion, the Court provides the parties with a summary of the status of each open case.

Amatucci v. Young
18-cv-1227-SM

In Amatucci v. Young, 18-cv-1227-SM (D.N.H.) ("Case 18-1227"), the following three claims are pending in this matter:

1. On September 7, 2018, Carroll County Sheriff's Department ("CCSD") Chief Deputy Richard Young, in his individual capacity, violated Mrs. Amatucci's Fourth

Amendment right not to be subjected to an unreasonable seizure of her person, by using excessive force against her in an objectively unreasonable manner, when he grabbed, squeezed, and twisted her arm, causing her extreme pain and injury, when Mrs. Amatucci had not engaged in any conduct which posed a threat to anyone, or otherwise provoked the use of force against her;

2. CCSD Chief Deputy Richard Young, in his individual capacity, violated Mrs. Amatucci's First Amendment right to petition the government for a redress of grievances by preventing her from filing a complaint against WPD Chief Dean Rondeau, at the Carroll County Attorney's Office on September 7, 2018;

4. CCSD Sgt. Michael Bedley, in his individual capacity, violated Mrs. Amatucci's Fourteenth Amendment right to be protected from harm by failing to intervene when CCSD Chief Deputy Young engaged in excessive force against Mrs. Amatucci on September 7, 2018, despite having the ability and opportunity to do so.

See Case 18-1227 (Doc. No. 95, at 2-3, as amended by Doc. No. 133, at 13).

There are a number of motions pending in Case 18-1227 addressing various issues in this case, including, among other things, procedural requests, substantive matters, sanctions, and discovery. Specifically, the motions pending in this case are as follows¹:

- Plaintiff's "Motion for Jury Trial for a Monell Claim/A Separate Claim" (Doc. No. 142/#5525²)

¹ The Court has not listed the documents filed in support of and in opposition to each of the motions listed in this Order.

The Court will resolve the above-listed pending motions with due regard to the upcoming October 2022 trial date.

Amatucci v. Laplante
No. 21-cv-237-LM

In Amatucci v. Laplante, 21-cv-237-LM (D.N.H.) ("Case 21-237"), Mrs. Amatucci sued Judge Joseph Laplante, Attorney Daniel Mullen, and Ransmeier & Spellman, asserting claims related to the defendants' alleged conduct in a case she previously litigated in this Court. A Report and Recommendation ("R&R") has issued in Case 21-237 recommending that the case be dismissed. Once the deadline for filing objections to that R&R has passed, the R&R will be presented to the District Judge for consideration.

Amatucci v. Rae
22-cv-202-SM

Mrs. Amatucci has recently filed Amatucci v. Rae, 22-cv-202-SM (D.N.H.) ("Case 22-202"). The complaint in Case 22-202 has been submitted to the undersigned Magistrate Judge for preliminary review. Mrs. Amatucci has also filed a motion to add a defendant and a claim for injunctive relief to that matter which will be addressed at the time of preliminary review.

Conclusion

The Clerk's office is directed to docket a copy of this Order in each of the three above-captioned cases.

SO ORDERED.

Andrea K. Johnstone
United States Magistrate Judge
